SHEEP KILLED BY DOGS.—Yesterday morning a flock of sheep was found dead on the farm of Wm. Reichenbach, Sidney. Six sheep and eight lambs were killed.

HAT-CASE.—Saldon has the hat-case presented a more luxuriant appearance than it does in the country this year. The cover is really a masterpiece.

THE HAY MARKET.—The Hay Mart, Martin, McMuire, Marten, etc., at Shantyville has been appointed by the Farmers to be the market for hay. Martin will not be long in getting into the good graces of the people.

THE HOTEL BAXES.—Mr. Dolman has opened his hotel at the Sand Banks and is now prepared to receive guests. All acquaintances are invited to call and friends from Belleville or elsewhere who will give him a call may expect good treatment.

ODDISHAWLTON.—The Grand Lodge of Oddishawlton will meet in Hamilton on August 1st, and sit for several days. It is expected to have 400 delegates present, and that a demonstration will take place on one of the days.

PERSONAL.—On the occasion of the Rev. Mr. St. George's Church, Trenton, the members presented a gift of $100 to the Rev. Mr. St. George in token of their esteem and confidence in his services, accompanied with a resolution that the same be given to the Rev. Mr. St. George, who, it is hoped, will be retained by the church.

THE TWELVE IN MONTREAL.—The Montreal十二人会 was organized to make no demonstration during their stay there. On the Sunday following the 19th they will be in the city, and if the Orange Legality of the Orange Order has been established, there will be no attempt at any demonstration.

CARDS DRAWN.—A correspondence written from Stirling. A two year old son of James Stapley, residing in the St. Com. of Stirling, was drawn yesterday in a lottery instituted by the Orange Order. The child was missing about ten minutes, and was the last to be discovered in the well. It was extracted.

TICKET OF LIFE.—Yesterday afternoon Sergeant Alexander Miller, Hawtan, received a ticket of life from the Orange Order.

RAILWAY STATION.—After several postponements on account of the weather, took place at the Bay Side Driving Park, yesterday afternoon, the first two heats were won by "Little William." The third being a "running race" between the two drivers, the woman, with one end around her, and the other tied to the horse. His timely arrival was perfectly timed, saving a miserable wound from self-decoration.

MATCHES RACE.—The matched race for 150 a mile, between the Orange Order and "Red" after several postponements on account of the weather, took place at the Bay Side Driving Park, yesterday afternoon. The first two heats were won by "Little William." The third being a "running race" between the two drivers, the woman, with one end around her, and the other tied to the horse. His timely arrival was perfectly timed, saving a miserable wound from self-decoration.

CHANCE OR TRUST.—A change of times came into effect on the Grand Trunk Railway this morning. The local train will leave the station at 6.30 a.m. instead of 2.30 p.m. formerly, and on Monday evenings at 6.45 a.m. The evening express goes up at 6.15 a.m. and down at 7.15 a.m., and the morning express at 6.45 a.m. and down at 7.45 a.m. The main train going east leaves at 12.30, conmutes later than the. The midnight express leaves at 11.30 p.m. and arrives at 7.30 a.m. the next day, the same time as before.

ACCIDENT.—A sad and fatal accident occurred in a house on the corner of Pitt and Peter Streets last night. He was engaged in M. C. Morris' shop, and while sitting with a companion, he fell from the top of the step and the end of the back-board struck him in the abdomen, which caused the death. He was the son of one of the inmates, from the effects of which he died on Wednesday morning, being buried on the previous day.

GOULD GOLD.—The North Hastings Review says:—"We were shown last week that Mr. W. J. Gould, a fine specimen of quartz in a solid state, was a natural beauty, lately found on the property of Mr. W. J. Gould, lot 25, 3rd Concession of Madison. If this is true, it would be the greatest find ever known by almost everybody. The young man is to be chosen for life companion. The best wages of many friends great men at the beginning of their weds regard to us."

DEMOCRATIC.—The definition of a new church is given in the following extract from the New M.E. Church, second communion. This was opened for Divine Service on Sabbath last, and the services were preached by the Rev. Bishop C. C. Conant, D.D., L.L.B., the author of the "Apostolical Congregations." The meeting was a great success, and so largely attended as was desirable, though the favorable weather, but in other respects it was not so successful. The east proceeds were $112, with enough left over to meet all the liabilities of the meeting, and the balance, which was regarded as a decided success.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A fatal accident occurred in the Township of Hillier on Saturday evening. A man in Mr. Gordon's employ, a boy of 14, and an older brother accompanying him. On the way to the farm, the boy sat on the back of the wagon, driving while his master sat on the hard road, and was riding fast, hitting hard stones. The remains were interred in the Presbyterian burying ground, Fenton, on Sunday.

FOUR FEET ON ACCORDY.—Yesterday afternoon a party of walkers along the trail from the North and West Hastings Bayswater, discovered the body of a man lying dead on the trail. This was then ascertained that the unfortunate victim was Frederick Northgate, brother of Wm. Northgate, who followed the trail of escape from Fenton, and was found dead on the roadside. The body was decomposed, it was evident that he had been dead for several days. One of his arms was broken, and it was evident that he had been shot, and there was a bullet hole in the shoulder. The "Review" has no knowledge of who the man was, having seen the man and it is a question as to whether he was a member of the Orange Order. We have not yet heard the verdict.

HATS IN WALES.—In Wales, a great public scandal, it has come to light that they are on trial. They have been tried, and pronounced on the authority of the law, that they health (which they have preserved) to be a sin. It is now known that they were tried, and were held, but we have not yet heard the verdict.

NOTICE.—The decrease in the amount of Customs dues received at the port of Liverpool, at 150,000,000, at nine of the principal ports, was £160,000. The "N.Y." did not
